

SAVE THE DATE: THURSDAY MAY 16 2019

PHILADELPHIA'S 3RD ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON HOARDING INTERVENTION

“Diving In & Digging Out”

Join us for a variety of local and national experts on Hoarding Disorder and related issues, including

- Innovative interventions
- In depth understanding of hoarding disorder
- Reasonable accommodations
- Motivation and Insight
- Housing inspections and hoarding
- Improving organizational skills
- Health concerns & Bed bug safety
- Organizational skills to address clutter
- Local providers and resources for individuals and families.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON!

REGISTRATION OPENS EARLY 2019

REGISTRATION

- Includes full day conference
- CEUs offered to multiple professions
- Panel discussion moderated by PHTF Chair David Wengert, MSW

The Philadelphia Hoarding Task Force is a coalition that seeks to improve outcomes for people who hoard and reduce the catastrophic consequences related to hoarding in the city of Philadelphia.

Balancing the rights of the individual with the health and safety needs of the community, the task force works to provide individuals and organizations in the region with the tools they need to successfully overcome this challenging issue.

DATE

May 16th, 2019
8am-4:30pm

LOCATION

Community Behavioral
Health
801 Market Street
11th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19107

JFCS
STRENGTHENING LIVES
SINCE 1855

